

Remarks

Claim 4 has been amended. The amendment to claim 4 corrects an inadvertent error in line 12 of the claim in which the word "calculate" was omitted from the recitation of "a third unit configured to a data" This recitation as now been corrected to read --a third unit configured to calculate a data--.

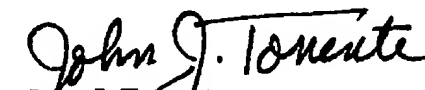

The amendment to claim 4 is not believed to materially change the scope of the claim. Moreover, it is believed that consideration of the amendment would not require a significant amount of additional work on the part of the Office.

Accordingly, entry of this Amendment under the provisions of 37 CFR § 1.312 is respectfully requested.
